

Youth Advisory Council

We need your voice!

The Adolescent and Young Adult Health Team at DOH is inviting young people to apply to be a member of a new Youth Advisory Council.

When does the council meet?
Council members meet on Zoom for about 90 minutes every other month.

Who can apply?
Washington residents age 13-21 who can get on the internet and use Zoom.

What do I get for being a member?
Earn a $50.00 Amazon e-gift card for each meeting you go to!

DOH Publication Number: 910-926

What does the council do?

The Youth Advisory Council is a community engagement group comprised of diverse young people from around Washington State. They help Department of Health learn about the public health topics that are important to young people.

For more information and to apply, go to:

<https://waportal.org/partners/home/adolescent-health/youth-advisors>

To apply right away use the QR code!

