

Resource List

RN Care Manager Role in Behavioral Health Settings

Benner, P. (2001). From novice to expert-Excellence and power in clinical nursing practice. Upper Saddle River, NJ: Prentice Hall Health.

Cohen, A. R., & Bradford, D. L. (2005). Influence without authority. Hoboken, NJ: John Wiley & Sons, Inc.

Dart, M. A. (2011). Motivational interviewing in nursing practice-Empowering the patient. Sudbury, MA: Jones and Bartlett Publishers

Minnesota Department of Health. (2001). Public health interventions–Applications for public health nursing practice. St. Paul: Minnesota Dept. of Health. Available from:
<http://www.health.state.mn.us/divs/opi/cd/phn/wheel.html>

Ric Kruszynski, Paul M. Kubek, Deborah Myers, and Jeremy Evenden. (2012). Center for Evidence-Based Practices at Case Western Reserve University [Brochure]. Retrieved May, 2018, from <https://www.centerforebp.case.edu/resources/tools/mi-reminder-card>

Rollnick, S., Miller, R., & Butler, C.C. (2008). Motivational interviewing in health care-Helping patients change behavior. New York, NY: Guilford Press.

U. S. Department of Health and Human Service, National heart, Lung, and Blood Institute. (2003). The seventh report of the Joint National committee on prevention, evaluation, and treatment of high blood pressure. Available from:
<https://www.nhlbi.nih.gov/files/docs/guidelines/express.pdf>

Wisconsin Department of Health Services. (2017). Heart disease: Professional resources. Available from: <https://www.dhs.wisconsin.gov/heart-disease/resources-pro.htm>

Washington State Department of Health Education Resource Exchange: Educational materials from the Washington State Department of Health. Includes great resources for clients around high blood pressure and other chronic conditions.